

Free
Training

POST-CONVICTION ADVOCACY FOR SURVIVORS OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Speakers:

Jessica Emerson

Director,
Human Trafficking Prevention
Project,
University of Baltimore
School of Law

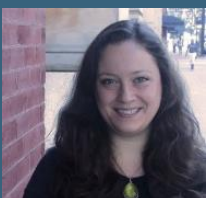

Megan Mattimoe

Executive Director,
Advocating Opportunity

Kate Mogulescu

Lead Attorney,
Survivor Reentry Project
Director,
Criminal Defense & Advocacy
Clinic, Brooklyn Law School

Sasha Naiman

Attorney/Deputy Director
Ohio Justice & Policy Center

For Attorneys – 2.5 General CLE credits*

When: Monday, December 17, 2018, 10:00 am – 1:00 pm

Where: Bricker & Eckler
100 S Third Street
Columbus, Ohio 43215

Cost: FREE!

What: The Survivor Reentry Project offers this training on criminal record advocacy for human trafficking survivors. The training will introduce attorneys to state law allowing victims of human trafficking to vacate, expunge, seal or otherwise address arrests and criminal convictions from their records and explore best practices for representing survivors seeking relief. The training will also familiarize participants with the Survivor Reentry Project's resources.

RSVP: Please register online:
<https://oslsa.wufoo.com/forms/w12nt7qx0mx5o5y/>

Sponsors:

*CLE Pending Approval